

ARBITRATOR'S CURRICULUM VITAE

SONG Lu (Mr.)
	Professor of Law at China Foreign Affairs University Senior Counsel, Yao Liang Law Office, Independent Arbitrator
	Beijing, China
	lusong99@gmail.com
	Languages: English, Chinese
Practice Areas
Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), International Trade, Banking & Finance, Mergers & Acquisitions Professor Lu Song has served as arbitrator since 1989 and currently being listed in the roster of arbitrators of a number of international arbitral institutions; having been involved in around 500 arbitrations under the rules of CIETAC, BAC/BIAC, SCIA, HKIAC, SIAC, ICC, SCC, London Metal Exchange, ICDR, UNCITRAL and CAS as arbitrator, counsel or expert witness, covering, inter alia, trade, service, investment, joint venture, corporate matters, M&A, share-transfer, construction, hotel management, licensing, agency, distribution, intellectual property, banking, letter of credit, securities, financial derivatives, leasing, maritime transportation, sport-related dispute; ICCA Handbook reporter for China since 2009.
Education
1978 - 1982	LL.B., Law School of Peking University
1982 - 1985	LL.M., China Foreign Affairs University
1985 - 1986	Master of International and Comparative Law, Free University of Brussels
Professional Experience
1986 - now	Lecturer, Associate Professor and Professor of Law, China Foreign Affairs University
1994 - 2004	Partner, Tianyuan Law Firm
2005 - 2008	Dean of Law Faculty, Director of International Law Institute, China Foreign Affairs University

2009 - now	Professor teaching at MIDS of Geneva University
2013 - now	Professor teaching at the Law School of Tsinghua University
1995 - 1996	Visiting Fulbright Scholar at the Law School of Stanford University
2008	Visiting Scholar at Max Planck Institute (Hamburg)
	Co-founder of the Beijing International Arbitration Forum (BIAF)