Overview

A member of the Paris Bar, Nicolas Audier is an attorney with more than 25 years of experience in Vietnam and the region. He was a Partner in charge of Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos for a major international law firm from 1999 to 2008. He graduated from Paris University, (Advanced Specialised Degree – DESS – with High Honours), and New York University (LLM), and auditor at IHEDN. His particular areas of expertise are corporate/ mergers and acquisitions, banking and finance and capital markets.

Nicolas Audier has been honoured, (“Bang Khen”), by the Vietnamese Minister of Justice in recognition of his substantial contribution to the development of Vietnam’s legal system. This is the highest award that the Ministry of Justice can bestow on a foreign lawyer on behalf of the Vietnamese government. Only three other foreign lawyers have been honoured in this way.
